

single source supply all your filter needs

We are the major independent distributor of Industrial Filtration in the UK.

single source solutions

that can help to reduce your filter purchasing costs

This is achieved by consolidation of best terms and performance arrangements. It will help reduce your vendor lists and subsequent administration costs as well as improving the management of on and off site stock levels and the response to maintenance enquiries.

we can supply

filters which can be categorised in the following areas:-

AIR

Panel Filters - intake and extract - various media's in both pad and pleated format.

Standard and bespoke sizes can be supplied in various EU grades. Fine Filtration - e.g. air intake pre and after filters on gas turbines, HEPA filters on air handling and air conditioning units etc.

PROCESS FILTRATION

Bag filters of varying sizes and media's, depth filters, carbon filters and pleated filters.

COMPLETE SYSTEMS

We also supply complete systems to your specification - talk to our Technical Department at our Walsall office for impartial advice and quotation.

our services include the following features:-

- single source supply of proprietary products
- free site surveys to ascertain your filtration requirements on plant and equipment
- stock buy-back
- exclusive stock holding
- firm prices for a minimum period of 12 months
- retrospective discount linked to turnover
- EDI
- website with on-line enquiry and ordering facility
- self billing options
- payment by credit card for low value orders
- out of hours emergency call out listing
- engineering department including laboratory services for more information on single source solutions for all your filtration needs and helping to reduce your costs, please call

+44 (0)1922 720 561

or email powerstations@filterserve.com

Power Utilities Group
Established 1934

Queen Street Premier Business Park
Walsall West Midlands WS2 9QE